"I wish to express my profound admiration for Dr. Mabie, both in his public and in his private capacities. * * * The more intimately one was thrown with him, the more one grew to appreciate the beauty and fineness of his character. * * * As a friend, and as an American, I mourn his loss."

—Theodore Roosevelt

"I wish to join in the tribute to the memory of Dr. Mabie—the Embodiment of the spirit of International Brotherhood. * * * I condole in the loss of so valuable a citizen, so delightful a neighbor and social companion, and so true a man."

—William Howard Taft

"He is gone from our earth, but he has left in each of us the consciousness of an abiding presence, serene and fine and true, which we know for the soul of Hamilton W. Mabie. In affection for him."

—William Dean Howells
